These Men Don't Strike. MINONK, III., April 21.—The miners went to work to-day as usual. Owing to the fire in the mine some time ago and the enforced idleness of the men, it is not at this time thought they will join the general strike.

OSKALOOSA, Ia., April 21.—None of the miners at the five Mahaska camps will come out. All are working and will so continue according to their declarations.

Red Run Men Out Early. WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., April 21.—The 200 miners employed at the Red Run mine, at Ralston, refused to go to work this morning. The mine-owners used every available means of persuasion, but the men were firm in their determination to remain out. All the miners are members of the United Mine Workers' Association.

Strikers Who Began Yesterday. PHILLIPSBURG, Fa., April 21.—The big strike may be said to have begin yesterday, when nearly all the miners working in the mines along the Beech Creek Rallroad suspended work without warning, some of the mines not having sufficient coal to keep the fires under the boliers this morning.

sufficient coal to keep the fires under the bollers this morning.

The number of men in thia, the Eighth Bituminous District, who will be on strike is at least 7,000.

The Houtsdale and Oscala mines quit completely at 12 o'clock to-day. There was no excitement. The men are determined. The operators say that they have sufficient coal to keep their customers supplied for two or three weeks. No trouble is anticipated unless some of the operators should undertake to start their mines.

JACKSON, O., April 21.—All the mines of Jackson County shut down at 11 o'clock this morning and 4,000 men have joined the great strike. The miners have worked so little in the last year hat many of them have no surpous and must surfer if the strike contigues for any length of time. Any length of time.

Two days before Fort Sumter had been fired upon, and the Sixth Regiment of Massachussets, in command of Lieut.-Col. Jones, recently Lieutenant-Governor of New York, was attacked in the streets of Baltimore, New York was in a fever of excitement over the news, and the volunteers who enlisted were given a royal send-off by the citizens and multitude who flocked in from the country to bid them God speed. Broadway was decorated with a profusion of flags and bunting.

To-night an address on "The Famous March of Nine Miles to the Junction" will be delivered. Police Inspector Conlin is one of the moving spirits in the celebratim. He was a high private in Company G.

The Hegiment was mustered out by Major O. L. Shepard, who was buried Thursday. The police escort for the funeral was furnished by Inspector Conlin, and was composed principally of veterans who had served with Major Shepard during the war.

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—The miners in what is known as the Clear-field district of the bituminous coal region, struck at noon to-day, under the general order. There are 20,000 men out of work in that territory. Added to these are 7,000 in the Phillipsburg district, (000 in the Indiana district, 5,000 in the Jefferson district and about 8,000 in the Jefferson district and about 8,000 in the Jefferson district and about 8,000 in the Jefferson district. A prominent operator said to-day:

"The strike is not against a reduction in wages, but simply and solely for the purpose of keeping the officers of the Miners' National Organization in office. Things had been quiet for so long a time, that the working miners were kicking against paying big salaries to general officers for doing nothing.

"As far as we are concerned, we have been practically maintaining a charity organization for some time. It would have paid us to have closed our mines six months ago. When we found it necessary to reduce wages, in order to keep the men at work, they accepted the situation quietly and did not offer chjection."
